

Once we watched a lazy, overheating world go by

Everything is broken by design

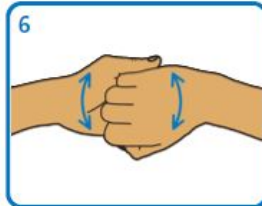

Why is my reflection missing?

And ready to know what the people know, ask 'em my questions, and get some help

We stick together forever and we see it

You're the uncommon soul who understands

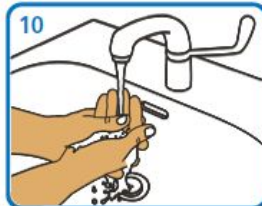

A new fantastic point of world view

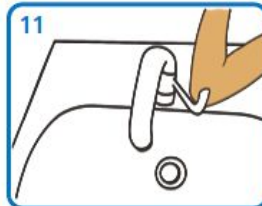

Mittens keep you safe and warm

Along an unknown road to embrace my fate

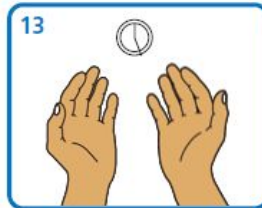

It can't be, I'll just ignore, but then she's never looked at me that way ever before

A footprint wants to be seen

Tomorrow before night, the lights will appear

Planet Earth is just a dead thing you can claim
